Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

A. Reporting Entity

The Library of Congress (Library), a legislative branch agency of the federal government, was established in 1800 primarily to provide information and policy analyses to the members and committees of the U.S. Congress. Since then, the Library has been assigned other major missions such as administering the U.S. copyright laws, providing cataloging records to the nation's libraries, and coordinating a national program to provide reading material for blind and physically handicapped residents of the U.S. and its territories and U.S. citizens residing abroad. The Library also provides services to other federal agencies and administers various gift and trust funds.

The Library's programs and operations are subject to oversight by the Joint Committee on the Library which is comprised of members of the U.S. House of Representatives and Senate. The Library relies primarily on appropriated funds to support its programs and operations. Budget requests are subject to review House and Senate Appropriations Subcommittees on Legislative Branch Appropriations. The Library also receives funds from other agencies for services provided under the Economy Act and other statutes. In addition, the Library receives donations from the public in the form of gifts and trusts. The trust funds are controlled by the Library of Congress Trust Fund Board, which consists of the Librarian of Congress (who is Chairman and Secretary of the Trust Fund Board), the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Joint Committee on the Library, the Secretary of the Treasury (or an assistant secretary designated in writing by the Secretary of the Treasury), and ten additional members appointed by the President (two), the U.S. House of Representatives (four), and the U.S. Senate (four).

Entity activities are those for which the Library has the authority to use the assets. Non-entity activities consist primarily of custodial accounts that are not available for use by the Library.

B. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements report the financial position, net costs, changes in net position, budgetary resources and financing of the Library for fiscal years 2001 and 2000. Certain amounts for 2000 have been reclassified to conform with the 2001 presentation of those amounts. These consolidated and combined financial statements include the accounts of all funds under the Library's control which have been established and maintained to account for the resources of the Library. They were prepared from the Library's financial management system in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

As a legislative branch agency, the Library is not required to follow the executive agency accounting principles established by the Comptroller General under 31 U.S.C. 3511 or the standards developed by the Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board (FASAB). However, the Library maintains its fund balances with the Department of the Treasury and submits information required to incorporate its financial and budget data into the overall federal government structure. For purposes of financial management and reporting, the Library has issued a regulation (LCR 1510), which adopts the federal standards for financial reporting and internal controls in a manner consistent with a legislative agency. The Library has not adopted the Federal Financial Management Improvement Act of 1996, the Federal Managers Financial Integrity Act and the Government Performance and Results Act, as these standards are not applicable to the Library. However, the Library uses these sources as guidance and reference in its operations. All significant intra-agency balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The statements include 5 (5) appropriated fund accounts; 11 (11) revolving funds; reimbursable funds (including four major programs); 98 (93) trust funds; and 133 (133) gift funds for fiscal year 2001 (and 2000, respectively).

C. Basis of Accounting

Transactions are recorded on the accrual basis and are within budgetary limitations established to facilitate compliance with legal constraints and controls over use of federal funds. Under the accrual method, revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when a liability is incurred, without regard to receipt or payment of cash.

The General Accounting Office (GAO), Office of Management and Budget (OMB), and Department of the Treasury established the FASAB for the purpose of considering and recommending accounting principles, standards, and requirements to GAO, Treasury, and OMB. FASAB has issued, and the three sponsoring organizations have approved, a comprehensive set of accounting standards which cover most transactions. The accompanying financial statements are prepared in accordance with these standards. However, transactions that are not addressed by these standards may still be incurred and the following hierarchy shall be viewed as the source of providing generally accepted accounting principles:

- . Individual FASAB standards agreed to by the Controller General, the Director of OMB, and the Secretary of the Treasury, and published by OMB and the General Accounting Office;
- . Interpretations related to the FASAB standards issued by FASAB and Technical Releases issued by the FASAB's Accounting and Auditing Policy Committee;

- . Requirements contained in OMB's Form and Content Bulletin in effect for the period covered by the financial statements;
- . Library of Congress Regulations and Financial Services Directives; and
- . Accounting principles published by authoritative standard-setting bodies and other authoritative sources (1) in the absence of other guidance in the first four parts of this hierarchy, and (2) if the use of such accounting standards improve the meaningfulness of the financial statements.

D. Revenues and Other Financing Sources

The Library receives the majority of its funding to support its programs through five appropriations that include both annual and no-year funding. The appropriated funds may be used, within statutory limits, for operating and capital expenditures including equipment, furniture and furnishings. The five appropriations are:

- . Library of Congress, Salaries and Expenses (annual and no-year)
- Copyright Office, Salaries and Expenses (annual and no-year)
- . Congressional Research Service, Salaries and Expenses (annual)
- National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Salaries and Expenses (annual and no-year)
- . Furniture and Furnishings (annual and noyear)

Additional amounts are obtained through reimbursements from services performed for other federal agencies as authorized by the Economy Act and the Library's annual appropriations legislation. Also, the Library receives gifts from donors and interest on invested funds. In addition, the Library operates several self-sustaining gift revolving funds that generate revenues from the sale of various products and services to the public and federal customers.

Appropriations are recognized as revenues at the time they are expensed. Other revenues are recognized when earned. Reimbursable and revolving fund revenue is recognized when goods have been delivered or services rendered.

E. Gift and Trust Funds

The Library administered 231 and 226 gift and trust funds with combined asset value of approximately $109 million and $150 million during fiscal years 2001 and 2000, respectively. Funds are restricted as to their use, which must be in accordance with the terms of the gift agreement. In general, funds are either temporarily restricted (principal may be spent) or permanently restricted (principal may not be spent). Additional restrictions may be imposed on trust funds by the terms of a trust agreement or donor's will. Library fund managers administer and oversee the gift and trust funds to ensure they are used as directed by the donors and in accordance with Library policy.

F. Fund Balance with Treasury

The amount shown as Fund Balance with Treasury represents the balances of the appropriated, reimbursable, gift and trust, revolving, deposit and custodial funds that are on deposit with the U.S. Treasury.

G. Cash and Other Monetary Assets

Cash and other monetary assets are defined as all cash not held by the U.S. Treasury. This category includes deposits in transit, cash on hand and imprest funds.

The Library receives and utilizes foreign currencies in carrying out operations abroad as it conducts business through six overseas offices. Foreign currency balances at year-end are immaterial to the financial statements.

H. Investments (Net)

Gift and Trust Funds - The Library of Congress Trust Fund Board determines the investment policy for the Library's gift and trust funds. The policy provides three options for investment of trust funds:

- . a permanent loan with the U.S. Treasury
- . a pool of U.S. Treasury market-based securities
- . a private investment pool consisting of the following stock, index and money market funds utilized during fiscal year 2001 and 2000:
 - . Vanguard 500 Index Fund
 - . Vanguard Total Stock Market Index Fund
 - . Vanguard Prime Money Market Fund
 - . Fidelity Fifty Fund
 - . Fidelity Stock Selector
 - . Robertson Stephens Funds The Emerging Growth Fund

The policy for gift funds allows only for investment in U.S. Treasury market-based securities.

Under 2 U.S.C. 158, up to $10 million of the Library's gift and trust funds may be invested with the U.S. Treasury as a permanent loan at a floating rate of interest, adjusted monthly, but no less than four percent per annum. The permanent loan is an interest bearing investment recorded at cost, which is market value.

Treasury securities are intended to be held to maturity, are valued at cost, and are adjusted for the amortization of discounts and premiums. Interest is computed using the straight-line method, which approximates the effective interest method.

Stock and money market funds are stated at current market value and are considered available for sale. Unrealized gains and losses are recognized and recorded as a component of non-exchange revenue in the statement of changes in net position.

All gift and trust fund investments are obtained and held by the gift and trust funds under conditions set forth in the respective gift and trust instruments.

Custodial Fund - Copyright royalties collected by the Copyright Office on behalf of copyright owners are invested, net of service fees, in U.S. Treasury securities. Treasury securities are intended to be held to maturity, are valued at cost and are adjusted for the amortization of discounts and premiums. Interest is computed using the straight-line method which approximates the effective interest method. These investments will be held until distributions are made to copyright owners. Income accrues to the benefit of the copyright owners.

Deposit Funds - Pursuant to Public Law 105-80, funds deposited by copyright applicants are invested, based on the unearned balance available, by the Copyright Office in U.S. Treasury securities. Treasury securities are intended to be held to maturity, are valued at cost and are adjusted for the amortization of discounts and premiums. Interest is computed using the straight-line method, which approximates the effective interest method. These investments will be held until the deposit fees are earned and income accrues to the benefit of the Copyright Office.

I. Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable generally resulted from billings to other federal agencies under reimbursable interagency agreements for database retrieval and other library services. The Library has established an allowance for doubtful accounts of $22,337 and $38,899 for fiscal vears 2001 and 2000, respectively, against governmental accounts receivable based on past collection experience. The Library does not record allowance for doubtful accounts for intragovernmental accounts receivable in accordance with FASAB's Statement of Federal Financial Accounting Standards (SFFAS) No. 1, "Accounting for Selected Assets and Liabilities," which cites that "losses on receivables should be recognized when it is more likely than not that the receivable will not be totally collected." Intragovernmental receivables are likely to be totally collected

J. Pledges Receivable

Contributions of unconditional promises to give (pledges) to the Library and the Library of Congress Trust Fund Board are recognized as donated revenue in the period the pledge is received. They are recorded at their estimated present value using a market-based discount rate. Accretion of the discount in subsequent years is also recorded as donated revenue. Substantially all of the Library's pledges are from major corporations or donors. In the past, the Library has collected all pledges in full, therefore, no allowance for uncollectible pledges has been established.

K. Inventory

The Library's inventories are primarily comprised of bibliographic products, unissued supplies and unused postage that will be consumed in future operations; materials used to reproduce printed materials; sound recordings for both internal and external sales; and sales shop merchandise for resale. Consumable operating supplies are valued at cost using a first-in first-out method of valuation. Sales shop merchandise is valued at cost or market, whichever is lower. The recorded values of inventory and operating materials and supplies are adjusted for the results of periodic physical counts.

L. Property and Equipment

For fiscal years prior to 1998, the Library capitalized furniture and equipment at cost if the initial acquisition cost was $10,000 or more. Starting in fiscal year 1998, the Library capitalizes furniture and equipment at cost if the initial acquisition cost is $25,000 or more. Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis using estimated useful lives.

The largest category of equipment is for the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped lending program which is classified as equipment on loan to the public in Note 8. The Library purchases this unique, specially-designed equipment from the manufacturer in large lots with a high bulk value. For financial reporting purposes, the machines are grouped by the aggregate amount purchased and shipped to machine lending agencies during a fiscal year. Each fiscal year group is then accounted for over the estimated useful life of the assets in the aggregate. The value of the equipment does not include any freight or postage costs. These shipping costs are included under the U.S. Postal Service's "free matter for the blind and physically handicapped." The value of this service has not been determined.

Operating equipment is amortized over a 3 to 20-year period. Software includes ADP software purchased from outside vendors and software defined as "internal use software" in accordance with SFFAS No. 10, "Accounting for Internal Use Software," which became effective for fiscal year 2001. All software recorded has an estimated useful life of three years or more and a value of at least $10,000 per item acquired in fiscal years 1997 and prior or at least $100,000 per item acquired in fiscal years after 1998.

Leased equipment meeting the criteria for capitalization in accordance with Statements of Federal Accounting Standards is included in property and equipment.

The Library occasionally acquires property and equipment by direct gift or by purchase from funds donated for a specific purpose or project. Because property is generally not restricted for use to gift and trust activities, property accounts are not maintained in the gift and trust funds. Capitalized property and equipment acquired through gifts are recognized as donated revenue in the gift and trust funds and transferred to the Library's appropriated fund. The Library records the donated property and equipment at its fair market value at the time of the gift.

Land and buildings are excluded from the Library's property and equipment accounts because they are under the custody and control of the Architect of the Capitol. This arrangement encompasses four Capitol Hill buildings (the Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, John Adams Buildings, and the Special Facilities Center) and a secondary storage facility at Fort Meade, Maryland. Costs associated with the acquisition and maintenance of these buildings are accounted for by the Architect. However, in accordance with SFFAS No. 4, "Managerial Cost Accounting Standards," a current year expense of $30.8 million and $30.1 million was recorded for the acquisition and maintenance of these buildings for fiscal years 2001 and 2000, respectively, and was offset by an imputed financing source, which represents the amount being financed by the Architect. For both fiscal years 2001 and 2000, the Architect received appropriations totaling $16.0 million to fund the structural and mechanical care of these buildings. This appropriation is not reflected in the accompanying financial statements. The Library does capitalize and depreciate leasehold improvements to all of its facilities as long as the improvement was made using the Library's funding sources.

M. Library Collections

The Library's collections are classified as Aheritage assets," and their value is not presented on the financial statements. Stewardship information covering the acquisition, use, preservation, and security of the collections is contained in a supplementary Stewardship Report.

N. Liabilities

Liabilities represent the amounts that are likely to be paid by the Library as a result of transactions that have already occurred. Liabilities for which an appropriation has not been enacted, or which are the result of deposit account activities, are classified as liabilities not covered by budgetary resources. For accrued unfunded annual leave, compensatory time earned, workers' compensation and capital lease liabilities, it is not certain that appropriations will be enacted to fund these amounts.

Advances From Others are funds received for the reimbursable programs, the Photoduplication Service and the Cooperative Acquisitions Program that have not yet been earned.

Custodial and Deposit Liabilities are customer funds on deposit for Copyright and Cataloging Distribution Service products and services. This category also includes the custodial funds for Copyright royalties.

Accrued Annual and Compensatory Leave -The Library's basic leave policy is contained in Title 5, U.S.C.; the Uniform Annual and Sick Leave Regulations of the Office of Personnel Management; and the decisions of the Comptroller General. Generally, each employee may carry forward a maximum of 240 hours of annual leave per calendar year. Accrued annual leave is accrued as it is earned and adjusted at the end of each fiscal year based on annual leave earned and taken. Annual leave earned in excess of the maximum permitted carryover is forfeited. Each year, the balance in the accrued annual leave account is adjusted to reflect current pay rates.

Employees' compensatory time earned but not taken is also accrued at year-end. An employee may accumulate a maximum of 40 hours of compensatory time during the fiscal year. A maximum of 20 hours may be carried forward from one leave year to the next only when it was earned during the last pay period of the leave year. Exceptions to the accumulation and carry forward rules require the approval of the Librarian or his/her designee.

Sick leave and other types of nonvested leave are expensed as taken.

Capital Lease Liabilities are liabilities resulting from capital leases of equipment.

O. Federal Employee Benefits

Approximately 46 and 50 percent of the Library's employees participated in the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) during fiscal years 2001 and 2000, respectively, to which the Library makes contributions equal to 8.5 percent of pay. A small number of employees under CSRS are also covered by Social Security (FICA) for which the Library's contribution is slightly less. An additional 48 and 46 percent of the Library's employees were covered by the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) during fiscal years 2001 and 2000, respectively, to which the Library makes employer contributions equal to 10.7 percent of pay, in addition to matching employee Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) contributions up to an additional five percent of pay. Under FERS, the employee is also covered by FICA to which the Library contributes the employer's matching share. The remaining six percent and four percent during fiscal year 2001 and 2000, respectively, of the Library employees were only covered by FICA to which the Library contributes the employer's matching share.

The accrued amounts due for the contributions due at the end of the fiscal year are reported as liabilities covered by budgetary resources.

Contributions To Federal Employment Programs For Fiscal Years 2001 and 2000

The actuarial present value of accumulated benefits, assets available for benefits, and unfunded pension liability of Social Security, FERS and CSRS is not allocated to individual Federal departments and agencies. However, in accordance with SFFAS No. 5, AAccounting for Liabilities of the Federal Government," current year expenses of $22.1 million and $20.4 million were recorded for the service cost of the Library's employee retirement, health and life insurance benefits during fiscal years 2001 and 2000, respectively, and was offset by an imputed financing source, which represents the amount being financed directly by OPM.

P. Intragovernmental Activities

Inter-entity costs are costs of services provided by other federal entities to the Library. When these costs are provided at no cost or at a reduced cost, the Library recognizes in its accounting records the full costs of the services it receives as an expense and as a corresponding financing source. These financial statements include unreimbursed inter-entity costs for the Architect of the Capitol, Office of Personnel Management, the Government Printing Office and the Department of the Treasury.

The financial activities of the Library interact with and depend on other federal government agencies. Thus, the Library's financial statements do not reflect all financial decisions and activities applicable to it as if it were a stand-alone entity.

- 1. The Library's financial statements are not intended to report the agency's share of the federal deficit or of public borrowings, including interest thereon.
- 2. The Library's program for the blind and physically handicapped participates in the U.S. Postal Service's "Matter for Blind and Other Handicapped Persons" program (39 U.S.C. 3403 - 3406). This Postal Service program receives an appropriation from Congress to provide free postage for qualifying organizations, programs, individuals such as mail from war zones, letters from blind people to anyone, and organizations which work for the blind. The Library's National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped uses this free matter program for mailing all books and equipment to its participating lending libraries and patrons.

3. Governmental Services:

a. The Library is authorized to provide to other federal libraries and agencies services such as automated library information and other data base retrieval services through data base vendors and in-house research studies. These services are provided on a cost reimbursement basis and are billed in advance of providing the services. At year-end the Library estimates the amount received in advance (Advances From Others - Intragovernmental) and the amount to be received for services provided (Accounts Receivable - Intragovernmental).

- b. Three governmental agencies provide administrative services to the Library on a reimbursable basis:
- . The Department of Agriculture's National Finance Center (NFC) processes the Library's personnel, payroll, and employee benefits accounting transactions. In fiscal years 2001 and 2000, the Library paid $497,203 and $453,587 for these services, respectively.
- . The Library utilizes the services of the Department of State as documented by the International Cooperative Administrative Support Services (ICASS) system to support the Library's six overseas field offices. The Library paid $1,123,586 and $1,140,891 for these support services in fiscal years 2001 and 2000, respectively.
- . The General Services Administration (GSA) provides building and vehicle leasing services for the Library. (See Note 9B)
- c. As noted under Note 1.L, the Architect of the Capitol provides the structural and mechanical care of the Library's Capitol Hill facilities and remote storage site at Fort Meade, Maryland.

Q. Related Party Organizations and Transactions

The Library lends support to several related organizations, projects, and programs from which it receives benefits in various forms. The following is a list of these organizations or programs:

- 1. Civilization Magazine Civilization, a bimonthly magazine published under license from the Library by Civilization, L.L.C., a limited liability company based in Delaware, was launched in November 1994. The original publisher was L.O.C. Associates, L.P., which sold their interest to Civilization, L.L.C., in January 1997. Under the licensing agreement, the Library may receive donations and must approve all promotional, editorial, and advertising material using the Library's name. In September 2000, the publisher announced that the magazine would be discontinued and the October/November, 2000 issue was the final issue published.
- 2. Telephone Pioneers of America The Telephone Pioneers is a large industry-related organization that voluntarily repairs playback machines for the blind and physically handicapped program. Approximately 1,500 Telephone Pioneers (AT&T retirees) and Elfuns (General Electric retirees) repair the cassette book machines and talking book machines. Their labor is valued at $4.2 million per year.
- 3. Library of Congress Child Care Association (LCCCA) The LCCCA is a nonprofit corporation under the District of Columbia's Nonprofit Corporation Act. It was granted 501(c)(3) status by the Internal Revenue Service on August 31, 1992, and currently operates as the "Little Scholars Child Development Center." The center is located on the ground floor of the Library's Special Facilities Center, 601 East Capitol Street, District of Columbia. The center provides childcare for Library employees and other federal and non-federal employees. Its operations, management, and employees are the responsibility of the LCCCA and not the However, the Library and the Library. Architect of the Capitol support the center with equipment, free space, cleaning and maintenance of grounds and building, utilities, local telephone service, and security. The value of the services provided by the Library cannot be readily determined. In addition, the Library, in accordance with Public Law 106-554, pays the government contributions for individuals receiving health, life and retirement benefits provided by the Office of Personnel Management. The Library paid $83,893 for these benefits in fiscal year 2001. The Library provides an official who is a nonvoting representative on the center's Board of Directors and who acts as a liaison with the Library.

4. The Archer M. Huntington Charitable Trust - This charitable trust was established in 1936 and is controlled and invested by the Bank of New York. The assets of the endowment are not a part of the Library of Congress Trust Fund Board and the board's only control over its investment activities is through the Librarian of Congress' role as trustee. The trust is defined as a split-interest agreement with a fair value of assets of $5,429,764 and $8,144,350 at September 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively. The Library is entitled to one-half of the income from the trust for perpetuity, which is used to support a rotating consultantship to bring "distinguished men of letters . . . " to the Library. Currently, the income assists in the funding of a "poet laureate" position, the acquisition of materials for the Library's Hispanic collections, and the promotion of activities of the Hispanic Division, particularly those which relate to Spain, Portugal and Latin America. In fiscal Years 2001 and 2000, the Library received $165,882 and $146,605 from the trust, respectively.

- 5. Ira and Leonore Gershwin Trust Fund and Related Charitable Trust - Under the will of Mrs. Leonore Gershwin, the Library of Congress Trust Fund Board is the beneficiary of 37.5 percent of Mrs. Gershwin's "1987 The will established the "Library Charitable Trust" which was accepted by the Library of Congress Trust Fund Board in January 1992. The primary purpose of the trust is to perpetuate the name and works of George and Ira Gershwin through all resources of the Library. The charitable trust does not belong to the Library but is a separate entity administered by trustees. The net income of the charitable trust is distributed to the Library's Ira and Leonore Gershwin Trust Fund yearly or upon the request of the Library. Income is recorded by the Library in the period received. The balance of principal of the charitable trust will be distributed to the Library in 2033, fifty years after the date of death of Ira Gershwin. The Library received $439,478 and $339,872 in goods, services and direct contributions from the trust during fiscal year 2001 and 2000, respectively.
- 6. "Friends" Organizations Three organizations lend support to Library programs through gifts of money and other property, but are incorporated as independent entities under the Internal Revenue Service Code, Section 501 (c)(3).

- a. Millennium Foundation, Inc. The Foundation operates for charitable, educational and literary purposes solely to benefit, support, and carry out the purposes of the Library. The Library allows the foundation to use its name in connection with the performance of activities approved by the Library. This right exists only so long as the foundation is engaged in activities that directly or indirectly support the mission and objectives of the Library.
- b. Friends of the Law Library This national non-profit organization supports educational programs, outreach, research, and the acquisition of rare materials and other activities of the Law Library not covered by federal appropriations.
- c. Friends of Libraries for the Blind The non-profit organization's purpose is to heighten awareness and visibility of national library services for blind and physically handicapped individuals in the United States and Canada, assist and promote library services, provide cultural enrichment programs, and create and issue periodic communications on topics related to blind and physically handicapped individuals.

2 Fund Balance With Treasury

Fund balance with Treasury at September 30, 2001 and 2000, is summarized as follows:

(Dollars in Thousands)

	2001	2000
1. ENTITY
Appropriated Funds	$228,947	$108,895
Reimbursable and Revolving Funds	50,019	54,487
Gift and Trust Funds	12,560	13,174
Total Entity	$291,526	$176,556
2. NON-ENTITY
Custodial Funds	$40	$91

- (1) At September 30, 2001 and 2000, the gift and trust fund balance with Treasury included $10 million invested in the permanent loan at interest rates of percent 5.3 and 5.6 percent, respectively.
- (2) Pursuant to Public Law 106-554, $20 million is unavailable for expenditure until an implementation plan for the National Digital Information Infrastructure and Preservation Program (NDIIPP) is approved by Congress. In addition, $75 million is unavailable for expenditure unless matched with non-Federal contributions for the NDIIPP that are received by March 31, 2003.

3 Cash and Other Monetary

Cash and Other Monetary Assets consists of the following:

Cash On Hand:	$361	$690
Imprest Funds	48	46
Deposits In Transit	291	244
Total	$700	$980

4 Custodial Funds

The Library of Congress Copyright Office Licensing Division administers the compulsory and statutory licenses covered by the Copyright Act (17 U.S.C.). The Licensing Division receives royalty fees from cable television operators for retransmitting television and radio broadcasts, from satellite carriers for retransmitting "superstation" and network signals, and from importers and manufacturers for distributing digital audio recording products (DART). Refunds may arise when a cable, satellite, or DART remitter inadvertently overpays or is otherwise entitled to a refund. The Licensing Division invests the licensing royalty fees in market-based U.S. Treasury notes and bills. Because these investments are held in a custodial capacity for the copyright owners, income does not accrue to the Library's benefit.

If disputes arise regarding the disposition of the royalties, the Librarian convenes a Copyright Arbitration Royalty Panel. The panel consists of three arbitrators selected from a list of professional arbitrators nominated by professional arbitration associations. The Librarian, upon the recommendation of the Register of Copyrights, selects two of the three arbitrators who, in turn, select the third arbitrator. This individual serves as the chairperson of the panel.

The Librarian reviews the panel's decisions and has 90 days to adopt or reject the panel's decision. Decisions may be appealed to the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

5 Investments, Net

Investments at September 30, 2001 and 2000 are as follows:

(Dollars in Thousands)

	2001				2000

A. Intragovernmental Investments

Non-marketable, market-based securities are Treasury notes and bills issued to governmental accounts that are not traded on any securities exchange, but mirror the prices of marketable securities with similar terms. Trust fund investment maturity dates for fiscal years 2001 and 2000 range from October 4, 2001 to August 15, 2005 and October 2, 2000 to August 15, 2005, respectively, and interest rates for the same fiscal year ranges from 2.1 percent to 10.8 percent and 5.7 percent to 10.8 percent, respectively.

Custodial funds investment maturity dates for fiscal years 2001 and 2000 range from October 4, 2001 to August 31, 2002 and October 12, 2000 to August 31, 2001, and interest rates for the same fiscal years range from 2.0 percent to 6.6 percent and 4.9 percent to 6.0 percent, respectively.

B. Other Investments

Other investments are the Library's investments in private sector money market and mutual funds. Cost was derived from the investments made plus reinvested gains, dividends, and interest.

Balances at September 30, 2001 and 2000, are as follows:

Non-Treasury Investments Fiscal Year 2001 Fiscal Year 2000

6 Receivables

The breakdown of consolidated gross and net accounts receivable at September 30, 2001 and 2000, are as follows:

A. Accounts Receivable

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts	22	39
Accounts Receivable, Net	257	274

B. Pledges Receivable

At September 30, 2001 and 2000, the Library had unconditional pledges of contributions totaling $11.1 million and $73.3 million, which were discounted through fiscal years 2006 and 2005 at a market discount rate and included in the statement of financial position at their discounted value of $10.6 million and $71.7 million, respectively.

The amounts due in future years, at September 30, at their current discounted value are:

Fiscal Year	2001	2000
2001	-	65,362
2002	6,688	3,326
2003	2,238	1,695

2005	178	386
2006	338	0
Total	$10,591	$71,694

7 Inventory

The Library's inventory is primarily comprised of bibliographic products, unissued supplies, and unused postage that will be consumed in future operations; materials used to reproduce printed materials; sound recordings for both internal and external sales; and sales shop merchandise for resale.

The following table shows inventory held for use and held for sale at September 30, 2001 and 2000:

8 Property and Equipment

Property and equipment accounts are maintained in three categories of funds: Appropriated, Reimbursable and Revolving. The appropriated fund category includes all property and equipment used by the Library for general operations. Property and equipment purchased by FEDLINK, the Federal Research Division and the Integrated Support Services Administrative Working Fund are recorded in the reimbursable fund. Property and equipment purchased by Photoduplication Services, the Recording Laboratory and the Cooperative Acquisitions Program are recorded in the revolving fund. The following table shows property and equipment, combined for the three categories, which were capitalized at September 30, 2001 and September 30, 2000.

10 Leases

A. Capital Leases

The Library has capitalized leases for machinery and equipment at a net book value of $573,105 and $5,895,622 as of September 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

The lease agreements are annual fiscal year contracts that are subject to the availability of funding. The agreements contain a lease to purchase provision and there is no penalty for discontinuing the lease and turning back equipment prior to the completion of the agreement. During fiscal year 1999, the Library entered into a three-year incremental funding agreement with the General Services Administration for the purchase of computer data storage equipment. The payments for this incremental funding agreement were not evenly distributed over the term of the agreement and were accrued based on available funding, as long as the minimum payment was made by the end of the fiscal year. These agreements concluded during fiscal year 2001 and the leases were converted to property, plant and equipment as of September 30, 2001. Estimated future minimum lease payments are as follows:

(Dollars in Thousands)

Fiscal Year Ended September 30	2001	2000
2001	-	$487
2002	$293	153
2003	239	111

2005	128	0
Total Future Lease Payments	815	779
Less: Imputed Interest	182	52
Net Capital Lease Liability	$633	$727

B. Operating Leases

The Library leases office space and vehicles from the General Services Administration and has entered into other operating leases for various types of equipment. Additionally, the Library's overseas field offices lease operating space from the Department of State. Lease costs for office space, vehicles and equipment for fiscal year 2001 and 2000 amounted to $2,462,329 and $2,497,288 respectively. Estimated future minimum lease payments through fiscal year 2005 are as follow:

(Dollars in Thousands)

Fiscal Year Ended September 30	2001	2000
2001		$2,302
2002	$2,416	195
2003	59	83

Total Estimated Future Lease Payments	$2,520	$2,625

11 Workers' Compenstation

The Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA) provides income and medical cost protection to covered federal civilian employees injured on the job, employees who have incurred a work-related occupational disease, and beneficiaries of employees whose death is attributable to a job-related injury or occupational disease. Claims incurred for benefits for Library employees under FECA are administered by the Department of Labor and later billed to the Library.

The Library accrued $1,741,546 and $1,898,963 of unbilled or unpaid workers' compensation costs as of September 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and established an estimated unfunded liability for future costs based on historical claims rates. The estimated future unfunded liability is $9,403,630 and $9,587,970 as of September 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and is based on a ten-year projection.

12 Contingent Liabilities

Several claims relating to employment matters are outstanding against the Library. While management cannot predict the outcome of the claims and is unable to estimate the potential loss, the maximum loss under each claim may not exceed $300,000 in compensatory damages, plus any equitable relief (back pay, front pay, attorney's fees). Under law, any claims settled internally would be paid from the Library's funds and any claims defended in court would be settled by the Treasury's Claims, Judgments and Relief Act Fund.

13 Other Liabilities

Other Liabilities as of September 30, 2001 and 2000 are comprised of the following:

(Dollars in Thousands)

	2001 Current	2000 Current
Deferred Credits	$1,533	$3,398
Accounts Payable	0	46
Liability with Treasury B Cash in Safe	8	10

Liabilities Not Covered by Budgetary Resources	31,756	92,957
Total Liabilities	$665,135	$786,861

Liabilities covered by budgetary resources include accounts payable, advances from others, accrued funded payroll and benefits, custodial liabilities, and deposit account liabilities. Liabilities not covered by budgetary resources include accrued unfunded annual and compensatory leave, accrued unfunded workers compensation, deferred credits, capital lease liability, and other liabilities.

15 Unexpended Appropriations

The components of unexpended appropriations at September 30, 2001 and 2000 are as follows:

(Dollars in Thousands)

	2001	2000
Undelivered Orders	$66,249	$61,918
Unobligated (a) Available (b) Unavailable	128,183 7,897	8,767 8,005
Total Unexpended Appropriations	$202,329	$78,690

Unexpended appropriations consist of unobligated balances and undelivered orders. Unobligated balances represent amounts appropriated which are unobligated and have not lapsed, been rescinded, or withdrawn. Undelivered orders represent obligations the Library had incurred as of September 30, 2001 and 2000, for goods and services, which were ordered, but had not been received, by that date.

19 Exchange Revenues

In accordance with Library of Congress Regulation (LCR) 1510, Financial Services, the Library must comply with any OMB circular or bulletin if it is specifically prescribed in (1) a LCR, (2) a FSD Directive, or (3) if required by law. OMB Circular No. A-25, User Charges, does not fall into any of these three categories, but may be used by the Library as a useful point of reference. Circular No. A-25 requires that user charges be sufficient to recover the full costs to the federal government. Full costs include all direct and indirect costs to any part of the federal government of providing the good or service, including unreimbursed inter-entity costs.

The Copyright Office's registration operations have legislatively mandated fees, which do not require the recovery of the full costs of operations. The Register is authorized to fix fees at a level not more than necessary to recover reasonable costs incurred for services plus a reasonable adjustment for inflation. Fees should also be fair and equitable and give due consideration to the objectives of the copyright system.

If the Library were to increase fees and prices to recover full costs to the government of providing these goods and services, this would in some cases reduce the quantity of goods and services demanded. It is not practicable to provide reasonable estimates regarding (1) revenue foregone from charging fees that do not recover full costs to the government and (2) to what extent the quantity of goods and services demanded would change as a result of changes in prices and fees.

21 Imputed Financing

In accordance with SFFAS No. 4, "Managerial Cost Accounting Standards," the Library has recorded expenses for the unreimbursed full costs of goods and services that it receives from other legislative branch agencies (i.e., the Architect of the Capitol and the Government Printing Office) and executive branch agencies specifically identified for fiscal years 2001 and 2000 reporting by the Office of Management and Budget (i.e., the Office of Personnel Management and the Department of the Treasury). Since these costs are not actually paid to the other agencies, an imputed financing source (revenue) is recorded to offset these costs.

The $53.7 million and $51.4 million of imputed financing for fiscal years 2001 and 2000, respectively, consists of $30.8 million and $30.1 million to offset the recorded costs of the Architect of the Capitol (Library buildings and grounds costs), $0.6 million and $0.7 million to offset the recorded costs of the Government Printing Office (exchange program costs), $22.1 million and $20.4 million to offset the recorded costs of the Office of Personnel Management (staff benefits costs) and $0.2 million each year to offset the recorded costs of the Treasury Judgment Fund for settled legal claims for fiscal years 2001 and 2000, respectively.

22 Unexpended Appropriations

The change in unexpended appropriations consists of the following:

	2001	2000

Total outlays	$394,636	$347,810	$742,446	$380,052	$405,445	$785,498

⁽¹⁾ The net amount of budgetary resources obligated for undelivered orders-unpaid, ending balance, is $97.3 million and $96.3 million, which consists of $64.5 million and $61.0 million of appropriated funds and $32.8 million and $35.3 million of non-appropriated funds for the fiscal years 2001 and 2000, respectively.

⁽²⁾ There was a $4.1 million adjustment to decrease the unobligated beginning balance and increase the obligated beginning balance of budgetary resources. This was made to reverse the FY 2000 recognition of budgetary resources from federal receivables in non-revolving trust funds.

⁽³⁾ For trust funds, approximately $9.1 million and $12.5 million of unobligated authority, at the donor's request, is restricted from being spent on program costs (income from investing restricted donations under the Library's Total Return Policy can be spent on program costs). These amounts are invested either in the permanent loan or in Treasury securities. An additional $69.5 and $16.0 million of restricted authority has been obligated and expended to invest in non-Treasury securities for the fiscal years 2001 and 2000, respectively.

- (4) There has been no contributed capital received during fiscal year 2001 and fiscal year 2000.
- (5) The Library is restating its fiscal year 2000 Combined Statement of Budgetary Resources and Combined Statement of Financing to be more consistent with budget execution information reported in the Budget of the United States Government. In the fiscal year 2000 statements, trust and special fund receipts were reported on the Spending Authority from Offsetting Collections line in the Budgetary Resources section of the Statement of Budgetary Resources. The receipts from this line were also reported as an offset in the Outlays section of the Statement of Budgetary Resources, resulting in a lower outlay amount. To be consistent with budget execution information reported in the Budget of the United States Government, these receipts should be reported as Budget Authority and not Spending Authority from Offsetting Collections. As amounts reported as Budget Authority do not result in an offset in the Outlays section of the Statement of Budgetary Resources, total outlays are higher than originally reported. To make this change, the Budget Authority line has been increased by $245.7 million, the Spending Authority from Offsetting Collections line has been decreased by $245.7 million and total outlays have been increased by $245.7 million. The effects on the Combined Statement of Financing, besides the lines that directly come from the Combined Statement of Budgetary Resources, include a decrease in the Nonexchange revenue not in the budget line of $25.1 million and a decrease in the Trust/Special fund exchange revenue receipts line of $220.6 million.

24 Subsequent Events

- 1. As a precautionary measure, the Library's three Capitol Hill buildings closed on October 17, 2001, for testing for the anthrax bacteria. While the three buildings reopened on October 25, 2001, no United States Postal Service (USPS) mail has been delivered to the Library since the closing. Mail from Federal Express and United Parcel Service, and courier mail have been received. All mail addressed to Capitol Hill (including the Senate, House and Library of Congress) is being held offsite by the USPS pending development of an appropriate process for its treatment and delivery. The lack of delivery of library materials, copyright deposits, cash receipts for revolving fund activities, invoices from suppliers and other incoming mail items have affected greatly Library activities that depend on incoming mail for normal operations. The Congress approved a $9 million supplemental appropriation for the Library in order to resume mail delivery and take necessary precautions to protect Library staff. The Library anticipates receiving USPS mail during February 2002.
- 2. The Center for Russian Leadership Development was created in the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, 2000, Public Law 106-554, December 21, 2000, for the purpose of establishing a program to enable emerging political leaders of Russia at all levels of government to gain significant firsthand exposure to the American free market economic system and the operation of American democratic institutions through visits to government and communities at comparable levels in the United States. The Library of Congress was authorized to be the administering agency for the pilot program until September 30, 2001. As the administering agency, the Library included in its financial statements the assets, liabilities and results of operations of the program through the date of completion of the pilot program. On October 1, 2001, the Library transferred from its accounts $11.7 million of net assets to the Russian Leadership Development Center Trust Fund.
